HARDOX WEARPARTS:

MASTERS OF UPTIME, CLOSE TO YOU

Hardox is the global reference in wear-resistant steel plate... Hardox Wearparts goes beyond the steel to deliver value-added services via an extensive network of Hardox-certified repair shops. There's no more effective way to master your uptime.

WE CAN PRODUCE YOUR WEAR PARTS

Wear parts need to be produced with extreme precision. You can count on the experience of local Hardox Wearparts teams in the production of parts using Hardox wear plate. Based on your drawings and instructions, expert and certified craftsmen ensure that Hardox wear resistant steel is bent, drilled, cut, welded or milled according to the highest standards. It's your guarantee of excellent results.

HELPING YOU KEEP YOUR PROMISES

Your Hardox Wearparts expert brings a high degree of skill and experience to the production of every wear part. He will help you find the best solution to all of your wear part replacement needs.

By optimizing the service lifetime of your parts and by assisting you in anticipating and planning repairs, he can help you evolve you repair strategy from reactive to pro-active.

HARDOX WEARPARTS: OUR REPUTATION IS YOUR GUARANTEE
